My Reading Book, page 10-12
4.5 Choral reading:
Have the students echo the teacher's reading. Vary voices.

"R" Vocabulary Cards and Poster
4.6 Show the cards that have the "R" vocabulary. Pronounce the words and invite students to pronounce them with you. Place them where students can see them and pronounce them again.
Ask one of the students to show you "radio." Ask somebody else to show you another word. Make sentences about them:
"The radio is small." You might even ask funny questions: "Is the radio red?" etc.
Pronounce them again.

4.7 Point out other things that are "red." Invite students to pronounce the names of the items with you.
Ask students to show you something "red" in the class. After they show you, put the item's name into a sentence in English: "My blouse is red." Ask students to repeat with you.

PRIMARY / SECONDARY ACTIVATIONS

4.8 Ask students to help you make a list of red things they can spot in the class. Write the list on the board.
Count the items on the list in English.
Then make another list. This list will consist of red items that are not in the class.
Pronounce the vocabulary with the class.

Surprise Box
4.9 Tell the class that this lesson is about the color red like: flower, apple, tongue, lips, etc. Show a box filled with red objects. Pronounce the names of some of them.

Letter "R" Poster and Vocabulary cards
4.10 With your help, students in small groups match the vocabulary words in small groups.

4.11 Ask students to pronounce the vocabulary.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome
2.1 Greet students at the door.

Greetings
2.2 Ask each of them how they are.
Encourage answering using complete answers.

Personal Introductions
2.3 Introduce yourself to the class (one more time) and ask each student; "What is your name?"

Professions
2.4 Review the professions vocabulary, first the pronunciations and then the meanings.

Song Book
2.5 Sing a song.
Explain the vocabulary and sing again.

PRIMARY ACTIVATIONS

World Map
2.6 Show a map of the world. Talk about the countries in which most people speak English. Talk about and point to other well-known countries on the map.

2.7 Say: "I'm ___ on the map. ___ your country. Use cognate wo___ etc., while descri___

Ask each student: "Where are you from?"
Invite each student to respond: "I am from ___."
After the student responds, repeat the name of the country and make a comment about it. Point out his/her country on the poster.
Invite students to share information about their countries.

To Be
2.8 Ask one student about another "Is she/he from ___?"

2.9 This exercise introduces 1st and 3rd person singular present tense forms of the verb "to be".

U.S.A. Map
2.10 Show a map of the United States.
Invite students to pronounce the names of some states with you.
Explain some of the history, natural environment, big cities, and special features (such as the Grand Canyon) of the U.S.A. Use cognate words as much as possible.

Alphabet and Numbers Poster
2.11 Pronounce each letter of the alphabet as you point to it on the poster.
Invite students to repeat each pronunciation after you. "A," "B," "C," etc.
Review names and states matching their names with the letter using the poster.

Numbers
2.12 Count the students and states using the numbers poster.

Song Book
2.13 Sing and teach the children's "ABC" song to students.

PRIMARY / SECONDARY ACTIVATIONS

Alphabet Flashcards
2.14 Present each letter of the alphabet again by showing and pronouncing the word printed on a card with the accompanying picture.
Place the cards on the floor and pronounce one of them. Have students find the one you pronounced.

U.S.A. Puzzle
2.15 Pair students. Invite students to put together a puzzle of the United States.
Encourage the students by looking at the appropriate poster and pronouncing the names of states while they are working on the puzzle.
After finishing, have each group say aloud names of as many states as they can rem___

Phonics/Vowel Cards
2.18 Pair students. Give each pair a set of cards that shows one of the vowel sounds listed on the poster and a word that contains the vowel sound. Pronounce this vocabulary with the students. Divide up the cards. Have each student pronounce his/her cards to the other student.

SECONDARY ACTIVATIONS

U.S.A. Map
2.19 Have students write a few names of cities and states on their personal maps of the United States.

ABC
2.20 Have students sing the alphabet song and match the states with the letter of the alphabet.

2.21 Alphabet Soup. Divide students into teams of 3-4.
Give each team a set of alphabet letter cards. Dictate words one at a time, for students to spell with their letter cards.
Encourage students to refer to posters on the wall as needed.

You may also dictate names and professions if desired, but try not to ask students to spell words they have not previously heard or that are not posted on the wall.

2.22 Students may race against each other as they go down the alphabet in order picking up the mixed-up letters from the floor. The student with the most letters wins.

Classroom Vocabulary
2.23 Give students sufficient white sheets of paper to fold and make an alphabet book. Have students provide a picture and a word for each letter. Introduce classroom vocabulary.
Students may use dictionaries and use common vocabulary.

Long and Short Vowels
2.24 Invite students to share their books and point out some long and short vowel sounds. The students to finish first may add more words ___ the bottom of each page that begin with ___ letter.

2.25 Have students work on page ___

My Adventures
Reading Book, Page 4-6
1.5 Read the textbook in unison with the students.
Ask for volunteers to read a sentence or a paragraph.

1.6 Talk about picnics. Are they very common in TX? Why? What about in other parts of the country?

1.7 Talk about the reading. Ask questions to check for student understanding.
Ask for volunteers to retell the story to the class.
Invite students to act out the story again in their own words without the text.

Picnic Vocabulary Flashcards
1.8 Have students practice the pronunciation of the "Picnic" vocabulary after the teacher. Using only English, the teacher explains the words. (She/he can use sentences similar to the ones used in the reading.)

Digraphs Poster
1.9 Explain what a digraph is. Write a few on the board for students to see. Pronounce them with the class.
Explain that English is a language that has many digraphs.
Say a few words and ask students whether the word has a digraph or not.

Present, Past, Past Participle Flashcards
1.10 Explain what a verb is and its function within a sentence. Ask the class to give you several examples of verbs.
Give the class examples of present, past and future tense. Briefly explain the differences in them. Ask for examples.
Explain that verbs have three important parts: present, past and past participle. Write a few examples of each.

Irregular Past Tense Flashcards
1.11 Explain that every tense has irregular verbs, and that the past tense is not the exception. Make a list of some of the irregular past tense verbs.
Pronounce them with the class. Give examples of them:

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Greet students at the door. Teacher introduces her/his self.

Scavenger Hunt
1.2 Welcome them to a new school year. Play a Scavenger Hunt game with the class. Its title is "Look for Someone Who…" Write about fifteen sentences on the board such as: he/she has three brothers or sisters, went on a trip during the summer, was born in Guatemala, etc. Students walk around the room asking only one question per person. The statements on the board need to be asked in a question form. The first person who collects a different name for each answer wins.

1.3 Explain the format of the class, its rules and rituals. Talk about what Accelerated Learning is.

ACTIVE CONCERT

Writer's Workbook: The Writing Process, page 6
1.4 Turn on classical music. Read to students the information in the box at the beginning of the lesson.

PASSIVE CONCERT

Writer's...

PRIMARY ACTIVATIONS

Writer's Workbook: The Writing Process, page 6
1.6 Ask students to open their books and read with you the information box from the lesson.
Ask for volunteers to read each sentence from the information box at the beginning of each lesson.

Writing Process Poster
1.7 Explain to the class what a writing process is, and why it is important to follow it. On the board, write the steps for the writing process: prewrite, draft, revise, proofread, and publish. Explain each of these steps.

Noun Poster
1.8 The class is going to review the parts of speech.
Explain what a noun is, and what proper and common nouns are.

Pronoun Poster
1.9 Explain what a pronoun is, and tell how many kinds of pronouns there are.
Make a chart to list them all, or use the poster to explain them. Explain the purpose of each type of pronoun.

PRIMARY / SECONDARY ACTIVATIONS

1.10 Have the class brainstorm and compose a simple writing following the steps of the writing process.

1.11 Call a common noun and toss a koosh ball to one student. That student needs to name a proper noun that describes the noun you called (sports company – Adidas). Throw the Cush ball to each of the students the same way.

Pronoun Flashcards
1.12 Ask for 10 volunteers. Assign flashcards with the pronouns (object) to each volunteer. M... a person. In your story d... nouns, even if you... The instruc... time they... replaced by a... correct pronoun... stand up.

Ask someone else to be the writer of the story. A funny story will work better.

Writer's Handbook
1.13 Work together as a class on pages 1-6 of their Writer's Handbook.

SECONDARY ACTIVATIONS

1.14 Have students work in small groups drawing a chart that represents the writing process. Have students choose their own icons to symbolize each of the steps of the writing process.

1.15 Have students write in their own words each of the steps of the writing process in their notebooks.
Reinforce using detailed explanations of each of the steps, and providing a sample.

1.16 Give students 3 minutes to write as many common nouns as they can think of in their notebooks.
Then give the class 4 minutes to write as many proper nouns as they can think of for their common nouns.
Invite students who have the most proper nouns to share their lists with the class.

Writer's Workbook
1.17 Have students work on pages 2-7 and page 10 about Writing Process in their Writer's Workbook.

Writer's Handbook
1.18 Have students work on nouns and pronouns in their Writer's Handbook p. 7.

Robots are very neat machines that perform a variety of features and are becoming more popular as today's age of technology advances. There is much discussion as to what qualifies as a robot, and several qualities usually stand out. A robot is artificially created, can be programmed, can sense and alter its environment, and
